From Saturday March 8. to Tuesday March 11. 1711.

At the Court at St. James's, March 8. 1711.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Viſcount Weymouth was, by Her Majeſty's Command, Sworn One of the Lords of HerMajeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council, purſuant to a late Act of Parliament in that behalf, Entituled, An Act for Rendring the Union of the two Kingdoms more entire and complete; and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

St. James's, March 10. This Evening Monſieur Marſchalch de Bieberſteyn, Miniſter of State, and Plenipotentiary from the King of Pruſſia, had a Private Audience of Leave of Her Majeſty, to which he was introduc'd by the Right Honourable Henry St. John, Eſq; One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Hamburgh, March 8. N. S. By Letters from Poland we are inform'd, that the Treaſury Tribunal at Radom have ſent ſeveral Deputies to the Czarowitz, who reſides at Thorn, to make a Remonſtrance concerning the heavy Exactions that the Muſcovite Troops continue to make in the Poliſh Pruſſia; and that Prince had promis'd they ſhould ceaſe, as ſoon as he could have an Anſwer from the Czar his Father. We have Advice, that the King of Poland has put off his Journy to Warſaw till the Twentieth of April. His Majeſty has receiv'd an Expreſs from the Count de Vitzthum, his Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of the Czar at Petersbourg, confirming the Reſtitution of Aſoph to the Ottoman Port, and that the Surrender was made upon the Twenty eighth of January laſt, and that his Czariſh Majeſty will uſe his utmoſt Endeavours to maintain the Peace he has made with that Empire.

Bruſſels, March 14. N. S. Letters from Paris of the Twelfth, confirm thoſe arriv'd two Days before, with an Account, that the young Dauphin, being five Years and two Months old, dy'd at Verſailles on the Eighth Inſtant, between Eleven and Twelve at Night, after four Days Sickneſs of the Meaſles. This Accident is the more afflicting to the Court, becauſe that Prince's Brother, the Duke of Anjou, an Infant of two Years of Age, is likewiſe ill of the ſame Diſtemper, but there appear favourable Symptoms of his Recovery. Deputies from Flanders are come hither to acquaint the Government, that the States of that Province have lately granted an extraordinary Subſidy of three hundred thouſand Florins, over and above the ordinary one, for the uſe of the Troops aſſign'd on them, and for other Puklick Services during the preſent Year.

Utrecht, March 15. N. S. On Saturday the 12th Inſtant, was held the uſual General Conference; at which, it being propoſed as unneceſſary to meet twice a Week between that and the Thirtieth Inſtant, when the Miniſters of France have promiſed to explain themſelves upon the Demands of the Allies; it was on all ſides agreed, That no general Conference ſhould be held before Saturday the Nineteenth, the next on Wedneſday the Twenty third, and none the Saturday following, the ſame being Faſter-Eve, and proper to be employ'd in Devotion. Yeſterday Morning Count Sinzendorff ſet out for the Hague, where he expects to meet Prince Eugene upon his return from England, and intends to be back here on Friday, in order to aſſiſt at the next general Conference. Some other Miniſters have likewiſe taken the opportunity of this Vacation to make a turn to the Hague. Lieutenant-Colonel Benſon, of the Earl of Stratford's Regiment of Dragoons, is come hither from Spain, through Italy, in his way to England, and ſays, we may expect to ſee his Grace the Duke of Argyle here, in four or five Days.

Utrecht, March 18. N. S. Yeſterday Morning the Miniſters of the Allies held a Conference, as uſual, at the Town-houſe. The ſame Day being the Anniverſary of the Foundation of this Univerſity, Monſieur Burman, according to Cuſtom, made an Oration upon laying down the Annual Office of Rector Magnificus, in which he is ſucceeded by Monſieur Serruſer. My Lord Privy Seal, who was preſent at this Ceremony, took that Occaſion to invite ſeveral of the Profeſſors to Dinner. We have for ſome Days paſt, had a Rumour here, that the young Dauphin and his Brother were dead; the former is confirm'd by an Expreſs to the French Miniſters, but we are ſtill in Uncertainty as to the latter. Sir James Wiſhart has acquainted the Britiſh Plenipotentiaries with his Arrival at the Hague, where he is to concert with the States General, ſuch Matters as relate to the Sea Service for the enſuing Summer.

Hague, March 15. N. S. Letters from Paris of the Twelfth Inſtant adviſe, That Monſieur du Caſſé was arriv'd with his Squadron at a Port in Gallicia. Several Couriers have been lately diſpatch'd to Brabant and Flanders, with Orders to the Generals of the States, concerning the opening of the Campaign. On Sunday laſt the Deputies of their High Mightineſſes held an extraordinary Conference. Yeſterday Count Tilly parted hence for the Frontiers, where the Army will be form'd on the Fifteenth of April next; and the ſame Evening Count Sinzendorff arrived here. Laſt Night a Meſſenger paſt through this Place with Diſpatches for the Queen of Great Britain's Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht.

Hague March 18. N. S. Yeſterday Morning an Envoy from the King of Poland, and likewiſe an Envoy from his Highneſs the Elector Palatine, had each a particular Conference with the Deputies of the States General. Count Tarrouca, Monſieur Consbruck, and ſeveral other Plenipotentiaries and Miniſters of the Allies are arrived here from Utrecht. Two hundred Recruits for three Regiments of Engliſh Horſe, that are now in Flanders, landed yeſterday at Rotterdam, and are purſuing their March for the Low-Countries. Baron Heems, the Miniſter of his Imperial Majeſty, has been in Conference with the States, concerning the regulation of Quarters for near Twenty four thouſand Men, being the Imperial Troops who are on their March for Flanders, and are expected near Maeſtricht about the beginning of the next Month. Letters from Paris, of the Fourteenth Inſtant, bring Advice, That the young Duke of Anjou was recovered, and that his Illneſs had been occaſioned by the breeding of his Teeth.
